

2cNOON EDITION*2c

TRAP 125 IN MINE BLAST THE DAY BOOK

An Adless Newspaper, Daily Except Sunday

VOL. 6, NO. 180

Chicago, Saturday, April 28, 1917

398

TRUST BUSTER TEDDY HERE--IS GREETED BY BIG BUSINESS

Teddy's Scouts Organized—Will Try to Break Up
Federal Government's Plans for War On Germany
—Stockyards, Public Utility and Newspaper
Bosses Turn Out to Greet Him.

What appears to be the last stand in Teddy Roosevelt's campaign of embarrassment against the government's plans of war will be made today in Chicago, most faithful of his stronghold and scene of his political pirating of the Progressive party.

With backing of a perfect lineup of big business concerns, led by the packers who are now under investigation, the coal trust heads and the public utility czar of the middle west, Teddy will try to rouse enough enthusiasm here today to force President Wilson or congress to allow him to tramp over to France and hold himself before that earnest nation as a representative American.

Teddy's army consists of two divisions. One of them is the crowd of